

This Day Published.—Tenth Edition, Now Ready.

MRS. HENRY'S PRACTICAL HOUSEHOLD RECEIPT BOOK.

This is a new volume, which should occupy a prominent place in the library of every housekeeper. No work has heretofore appeared, where so much useful information has been conveyed in so simple a form. The "Household Receipt Book" will be found a perfect repository, with regard to the "Household and Domestic Economy." Its immense popularity in proof of its excellence. It is beyond a doubt, the most perfect housekeeper's book we have ever published.

Price $1.00—Every volume, beautifully bound. Price $1.

Also, a new edition of the following:

A COMPANION TO THE "DIARY OF A PHYSICIAN."

REMEMBRANCES OF THE LIFE AND DICTION OF DR. STRAY LEAVES FROM MY JOURNAL.

The Life and Diiction of Dr. Stray Leaves from My Journal, being sketches of the most interesting Reminiscences of a retired Physician.

Decidedly the best book of the kind that has appeared since Ward's "Diary of a Physician." The stirring incidents are all founded upon facts that have occurred in the course of a long medical practice. The style is clear, forcible, and forcible, and the author has adopted those great principles of morality and philanthropy that it is an excellent family book.

12,000 copies of this splendid work have already been sold. Published in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, & London.

THE LAWYER'S STORY; OR, THE OAKMAN'S WITNESS. By a Member of the New York Bar.

A Romance of Reality, Deeply Interesting Narrative. Founded on fact.

"Decidedly the very best work of fiction that has appeared for many years past."

"An exceedingly clever tale. I believe, to be one of the most popular publications of the day."

Published in 1 vol. bound. Illustrated 75¢; Paper 50¢.
